

NEBOSH Certificate in Fire Safety and Risk Management

A fire can have a devastating effect on an organisation; 77% of businesses experiencing a major fire never fully recover. The NEBOSH Fire Safety and Risk Management Certificate is a qualification for those with fire safety responsibilities in the workplace. It was launched in 2005 and is already established as a popular qualification with over 70 providers offering courses in the UK and abroad, and over 3,000 candidates having already achieved the qualification.

Benefits

Upon completion of this course delegates will :

- Have the necessary underpinning knowledge to ensure that fire prevention is maximised across the workplace area for which they are responsible.
- Be able to carry out a full Risk Assessment in relation to Fire Safety.

Learning Content

Unit FC1 Fire Safety & Risk Management

- Managing Fire Safety
- Principles of fire and explosion
- Causes and prevention of fire
- Fire protection in buildings
- Safety of people in the event of a fire
- Fire risk assessment

Unit FC2 - Practical Fire Risk Assessment

Suitable for

Managers and supervisory staff who need to ensure that their organisation meets its responsibilities under fire safety legislation. Courses leading to this qualification should equip holders to carry out fire risk assessments of most low risk workplaces and identify the range of fire protective and preventative measures required. It is therefore also suitable for people moving into fire safety adviser roles.

Assessment and Qualification

Unit FC1 is a taught unit assessed by one two-hour written examination. Candidate scripts are marked by external examiners appointed by NEBOSH. Unit FC2 is assessed by a two-hour practical assessment undertaken in the candidates workplace to test the application of taught health and safety and fire safety principles by conducting a fire risk assessment. The practical examination is internally assessed by the course provider and externally moderated by NEBOSH.

Course Duration

5 one day workshops + 1 day examination:
28 April, 5th May, 12th May, 19th May, 26th May & 9th June pm - examination
Prices are inclusive of NEBOSH registration, assessment, workbook, refreshments and buffet lunch at each workshop.
